Kabat, Schertzer, De La Torre, Taraboulos and Company Hires Director of Human Resources and Operations

MIAMI, Dec. 5, 2016 – South Florida-based accounting and advisory firm Kabat, Schertzer De La Torre, Taraboulos and Company (KSDT) today announced it has hired Adam Daines as its first director of HR and Operations.

Daines joins the firm from Grant Thornton, where he was HR manager for the Florida and mid-South territory. In this position, he oversaw the hiring, training and benefits management of more than 870 employees. Before this, he was the national HR business partner for one of North America's leading suppliers and fabricators of perforated metal products. Early in his career, Daines was an HR generalist with a London-based professional services firm. He holds a juris doctorate from Nottingham Trent University and an Advanced Vocational Certificate of Education (AVCE) in Business Strategy from Boston College as well as certification from the HR Certification Institute® (HRCI®) and the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM).

"It is a pleasure to welcome Adam to our firm and assist us in creating a formal HR program that reflects our firm's culture and aligns with our rapid growth," said Jeffrey Taraboulos, KSDT managing partner.
