Opens New Broward Office

MIAMI, February 16, 2016 – Miami-based accounting and tax advisory firm Kabat, Schertzer, De La Torre, Taraboulos and Company (KSDT) today announced it has opened an office in Weston, Fla., to better serve its growing staff and client base north and west of Miami-Dade County.

The 2,505 square-foot space, which is located at 1625 N. Commerce Parkway in Weston, Fla., will become the new home to many KSDT employees who had previously worked out of smaller satellite offices in Hollywood and Coral Springs, Fla. In addition, the new office will serve as a central hub for firm members to meet more frequently with clients located throughout South Florida and on the state's Gulf Coast.

“Our firm has expanded exponentially, and we recognized that we needed a central location where we could build-out the space to meet our evolving needs,” said Jeffrey Taraboulos, managing partner with KSDT. “The Weston office is a major step in our firm’s growth and our commitment to enhancing client relationships.”
